IN COURT:

As a preliminary matter to entering an amended scheduling order for completion of discovery and setting a date for a trial on the merits of Plaintiffs claims, the Court discussed the posture of the case in light of recent election cases on standing. Each party is permitted to file a statement with the Court addressing their position on whether the Court should certify its July 30, 2020 Order on the Motion to Dismiss (Doc. 751) for interlocutory appeal to the Eleventh Circuit to allow the issue of standing to be addressed in the pending consolidated appeals of the Courts preliminary injunction orders. The statements shall be filed on the docket by Thursday, January 21, 2020 and shall not exceed 10 pages.
